Part II, Line 17a - 10% Facts and Circumstance Test - 2021

Ten Percent Support Limitation: The Community Foundation for McHenry County (CFMC), with a public support percentage of 26.7%, is above the 10% threshold and well on its way to the 33 1/3% of public support.

Attraction of Public Support: Since its inception, CFMC has been organized and operated to attract public support. While earlier years were focused on seed donors, it has always been a major responsibility of the Executive Director to fundraise. In 2019 CFMC hired a new Executive Director, Deb Thielen, who has over 25 years of experience in the not-for-profit industry including substantial successful fundraising experience. In her short tenure at CFMC she has already been very successful in raising funds from new sources. In addition, Ms. Thielen created and filled a new full-time position for a Director of Planned Giving whose sole responsibility will be cultivating new donors for CFMC. Since 2015, CFMC has reached out to the general public through its Give 360 program which targets smaller donors to make an annual donation of $360 with the goal of inspiring future larger gifts. The CFMC has also recently re-energized its Planned Giving Advisory Committee, which is comprised of legal and financial professionals in the McHenry Community who are tasked with educating their clients and other professionals about the advantages of directing their charitable donations to CFMC.

Percentage of Financial Support: As stated above, CFMC's percentage of public support exceeds the 10% threshold comfortable at 26.70%. The CFMC intends to continue to expand its public support through its established ongoing fundraising activities and through its newly expanded staff. The public support percentage increased from the prior year and the CFMC expects to pass the public support test for the 9/30/2023 tax return. Sources of Support: With the exception of a donor, who is CFMC's largest seed donor, the CFMC has never relied on a single donor or family as a primary source of support. The CFMC has striven to expand its donor base and, since 2016, has averaged between 200 and 250 different donors annually. While the donor mentioned above has been extremely generous to the foundation, he does not exert any control, as he is not on the Board, nor does he have any family member on the Board. It should also be noted that this donor is 100 years old and the CFMC does not regard him as having ongoing fundraising potential.

Representative Governing Body: No major donors of CFMC are on the Board of CFMC. In recruiting and selecting Board members CFMC has sought to attract an array of board members from every part of the country. The individuals represent a cross section of professions, age groups, ethnicities and skill sets that mirror as much as possible the McHenry County community itself. The Board members are fully independent from major donors to CFMC.

Availability of Public Facilities or Services: The CFMC has recently purchased a building in downtown Crystal Lake which is at the heart of McHenry County. The building size exceeded the space that CFMC itself needed for offices. The building is currently under renovation and CFMC was able to secure an endowment to support the building and turn the extra space into a Philanthropy Center. The Philanthropy Center will provide public meeting spaces. The Philanthropy Center will also have office space that will be made available to new or existing community NFP organizations. The CFMC has received a waiver of property taxes from McHenry County on the basis of its status as a charitable organization.

Additional Factors Pertinent to Membership Organizations: These provisions are not applicable to the CFMC because it is not a membership organization.

Adverse Impact if Requested Status Not Received: Qualified charitable contributions from retirement accounts are a popular form of gifting by donors. The continued classification as a publicly supported organization would allow CFMC to receive these types of gifts. The inability to receive qualified charitable gifts would be an adverse impact. It is important for McHenry to be reclassified as a public charity in order to grow its independent public support in ways more tailored to their specific community's needs and fundraising capacity.
